Additional Information to Note:

- ❖ All participants will be required to complete a Power of One Service Project throughout the year to be shared with the St. Mary's and St. Joan's Community following mass on March 1st. This project will be an independent service project and must include a minimum of 15 hours of service. Further instructions and planning for the project will be discussed at the Confirmation Kickoff @ Camp Fiver on Sunday, September 29th from 1pm-8pm.
- ❖ All participants will be required to do a partial day of Service at Hope House in Utica. There will be 3-4 dates to choose from and we will get them you as soon as possible.
- ❖ All Participants will be required to complete a 2-3 page saint report to be presented to the class and handed in for Father's review. Expectations for this will be further discussed at the Confirmation Kickoff.
- ❖ Confirmation (for current 10th graders) will take place in October 2020 and there will be direct preparation requirements in the fall leading up to Confirmation. Schedule for direct prep will be given out at a later time.
