FROM THE DESK OF FATHER HAGE

This week the parishes in our PCA celebrate stewardship weekend. Three years ago, I started the practice of producing summarized financial reports for our parishes, so our parish communities can get a better sense of where we are financially as well as how we might be able to help in the coming year. What identifies a steward? Safeguarding material and human resources and using them responsibly are one answer; so is generous giving of time, talent, and treasure. But being a Christian steward means more. As Christian stewards, we receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord. The life of a Christian steward models the life of Jesus. It is challenging and even difficult, in many respects, yet intense joy comes to those who take the risk to live as Christian stewards. Women and men who seek to live as stewards learn that "all things work for good for those who love God" (Rom 8:28). After Jesus, we look to Mary as an ideal steward. As the Mother of Christ, she lived her ministry in a spirit of fidelity and service; she responded generously to the call. We must ask ourselves: Do we also wish to be disciples of Jesus Christ and Christian stewards of our world and our Church? Central to our human and Christian vocations, as well as to the unique vocation each one of us receives from God, is that we be good stewards of the gifts we possess. God gives us this divine-human workshop, this world and Church of ours. The Spirit shows us the way. Stewardship is a part of that journey. I would like to express my deepest gratitude for your heroic stewardship during this time of pandemic. I find our financial reports from all four parishes to be incredibly encouraging, especially when we consider the shutdown and the fact that we were not able to gather in the church for Mass for the span of two months. Thank you for your goodness, and for your ever faithful support in this time of crisis. These financial reports further my belief that God has wonderful things in store for our communities in the coming year. St. Joan of Arc, St. Bernard, St. Mary, and St. Joseph, pray for us!

Clarification about PCA Masses, Parish Membership, and Envelopes:

All parishioners in our PCA are welcome to attend any one of the Masses throughout the PCA on any campus throughout the weekend. All four campuses now belong to one faith community, so all four campuses are at your disposal for their Masses and any other parish offerings as well. There will be a pre-registration link made available to all four parishes every Monday, so you can click the Mass time you would like to attend on any campus and reserve a spot. If you are attending Mass on another campus, there is no need to change parish membership. You can simply bring your home parish's envelope to the Mass of your choice, drop your envelope in the collection basket, and your envelope will make its way back to your home parish. Also, if you do not have internet, you can pre-register for Masses by calling any one of the parish offices, and the secretaries from each parish will fill in the online registration form on your behalf. Please pre-register for Masses before 1pm on Thursday of each week.
