Pastoral Care

If you or a loved one are in the hospital or any other institution and would like a visit from Father Hage, please call him directly at the parish office. The hospital cannot share with the parish that you are in the hospital because of HIPAA laws, so Father Hage may not know you are in the hospital when he would love to visit you. So please call.

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER HAGE

I had the opportunity to attend my family reunion this past Sunday in Cooperstown. It was a beautiful day, and it was a blessing for me. This event got me reflecting on the fact that our backgrounds, where we come from, are what makes us who we are. I know firsthand that there can be so many aspects of our personal history, both good and bad, both difficult and joy-filled, both painful and delightful, that sometimes it can be hard to look back upon our life. But for the Catholic, as a person of faith, all of it is somehow caught up into God's mysterious love. He respects and reverences all of it. When we look upon our past with this knowledge that God loves me as I am, then we can look back and be filled with gratitude that even the hard things end up being good somehow. That somehow God is so great that he makes it all beautiful in the end.

That being said, I am glad I can extend now my own familial love to you. The only reason I know how to love, I know how to be kind, I know how to be selfless, is because of my family. They taught me everything. They taught me how to be the priest I am today. My prayer is that whatever your past might be, that you can look back on it through God's eyes and see how strangely beautiful it all is. I pray that you can look back and say, "Thank you." For the Catholic, gratitude is the strongest medicine for the soul. May you be blessed by this grace.

Mary Immaculate and Saint Joan of Arc, pray for us!

There will be a blood drive August 15, 10-3 PM, at Crouse Community Center. To schedule an appointment to donate, call 1-800-RED CROSS or visit www.redcrossblood.org Sponsor keyword: crousecommunityctr. Walk-ins are always welcome and appreciated!

A Family Perspective

The demands of family can be so overwhelming we feel walking on water would be easier. When Jesus was pressured, He dismissed everyone, so he could be "by himself and pray." When overwhelmed and stressed, go to a quiet place and surrender your pressured feelings to the Lord using Peter's prayer in today's gospel. "Lord, save me."
