Pastoral Care

If you or a loved one are in the hospital or any other institution and would like a visit from Fr. Hage, please call him directly at the parish office. The hospital cannot share with the parish that you are in the hospital because of HIPAA laws, so Fr. Hage may not know you are in the hospital when he would love to visit you. So please call.

A Family Perspective

The mother in today's gospel persisted, even when she was ignored and insulted. She would do whatever was necessary to bring relief to her child. Parenting is more than bringing life into the world; it is also about sacrificing daily for your children.

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER HAGE

I had a wonderful meeting with our deacons this past Sunday. As an administrator, I am so blessed to have the assistance of two deacons, Deacon Paul and Deacon Mark. We enjoyed a lunch together with bagel sandwiches from Flour and Salt Bakery (they were delicious!), and then had a great conversation about how we can work together this fall. In truth, I was so encouraged by our meeting because I think we will make a phenomenal team. Both Deacon Paul and Deacon Mark possess an incredible zeal and enthusiasm for the ministry and for evangelization (which is very close to my heart). I consider them my brothers in the field of ministry, and I hold them in great esteem. May God continue to bless them in their ministry!

On another note, I will be away next weekend from Wednesday, August 23th to Sunday, August 27th. Every year, my immediate family gathers in Lake George for a family vacation. We have been doing this every year since I was born. It is truly a cherished time for me, and a great way for my siblings and I to honor my parents. Please know that you will be in my prayers as I spend time up north. Msgr. Robert Yeazel will be covering all of the Masses for me the weekend of August 27th. He just retired from administrative duties this past spring. Please give him a warm welcome, as he is a very dear friend of mine.

Also, Father Paul Carey will be covering the 9 AM daily Mass at St. Mary's on Thursday, August 24th. Father Carey also retired this past spring and now lives in the area. I met with him last week over dinner, and he offered to assist our communities on the weekend. I was overjoyed to hear this news because one of the greatest gifts any parish could receive is the presence of a senior priest in the community. Father Carey brings with him many years of experience, and I am happy to have him on board. He will be saying one Mass each weekend. Please give him a warm welcome.

Mary Immaculate and Saint Joan of Arc, pray for us!
