Divine Mercy Chaplet Novena

St. Mary's & St. Joan's will be praying the Novena to the Divine Mercy in preparation for our parish pilgrimage to the National Shrine in Massachusetts. Father Hage will be leading the novena prayer after every daily Mass starting on Monday, July 2nd. Prayer materials on how to pray the chaplet and novena will be available for those who would like to participate. Participants are asked to pray the novena privately on Friday, July 6th to keep the novena going. Father Hage sees this as a huge opportunity to ask special graces upon our community and upon our individual needs. Don't miss out!

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER HAGE

I would like to thank Deacon Paul and Sue Lehmann for hosting our float decorating party at their house this past Tuesday as well as spearheading the organization of our parish float. I would also like to thank all who came out to support this important event. It turned out to be a wonderful demonstration of the vibrant community we have here at St. Mary's and St. Joan's.

Once again, I was surprised and overjoyed last week at the bishop's decision to appoint me as your pastor. I would like to thank all of you for the kind words and encouraging notes you sent me upon the occasion of my appointment. You have been so supportive of me and my ministry, and I want you to know that your kindness does not go unnoticed. I am deeply grateful to God that he has brought me here to St. Mary's and St. Joan's.

Lastly, I would like to encourage participation in our parish pilgrimage to the National Shrine of Divine Mercy in Stockbridge, MA. The registration deadline is Monday, July 9. This pilgrimage will be a grace-filled event as we go to this special shrine dedicated to Jesus' mercy. If you are not able to attend the pilgrimage, feel free to e-mail stmaryshamilton@syrديو.org with your prayer requests. I would be happy to personally bring your prayer intentions to the feet of Jesus on this day of prayer.

Mary Immaculate and Saint Joan of Arc, pray for us!
