HOPE Appeal

Thank you to all who have contributed so far to this year's HOPE Appeal. Please remember, it's not how much you give, but that everyone gives what they can to help support the efforts of the diocese in providing services for the over 240,000 Catholics in our seven-county diocese. As always, thank you for your generous support of your parishes and the Diocese of Syracuse.

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER HAGE

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, which is also known as Corpus Christi. The Lord Jesus, on the night before he suffered on the cross, shared one last meal with his disciples. During this meal, our Savior instituted the sacrament of his Body and Blood. He did this in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the Cross throughout the ages and to entrust to the Church his Spouse a memorial of his death and resurrection. The Catholic Church professes that, in the celebration of the Eucharist, bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit and the instrumentality of the priest. Jesus said: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world. . . . For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink" (Jn 6:51-55). The whole Christ is truly present, body, blood, soul, and divinity, under the appearances of bread and wine—the glorified Christ who rose from the dead after dying for our sins. This is what the Church means when she speaks of the "Real Presence" of Christ in the Eucharist. This presence of Christ in the Eucharist is called "real" not to exclude other types of his presence as if they could not be understood as real (cf. Catechism, no. 1374). The risen Christ is present to his Church in many ways, but most especially through the sacrament of his Body and Blood. I pray that our devotion to the Most Blessed Sacrament may always be at the center of our faith communities. Mary Immaculate and St. Joan of Arc, pray for us!

Disposing of Religious Artifacts

As Catholics, we are accustomed to having religious objects “blessed,” which signifies the permanent sanctification and dedication of an object for some sacred purpose. Once a religious object is blessed and dedicated for divine worship or veneration, it must be treated with reverence and must not be used in either an improper or profane way (cf. Code of Canon Law, #1171).

What happens when the rosary or statue breaks and is irreparable? Or, when the palm dries out, and the following Palm Sunday provides us with new palm? The basic rule for the disposition of these items is to burn or to bury them.

So, instead of dropping it off in the church basement, the normal “rule of thumb” is that anything that has been blessed should be burned (and then the ashes buried) or simply buried.

Please Offer Prayers:

SARP was created by St. Mary's and St. Joan's parishioners who wanted to do something positive to respond to the clergy sexual abuse crisis. Their goal is: “To provide a robust parish and community response to sexual abuse, including (1) acknowledging past abuses in the church and in society at large, (2) ministering to victims of sexual abuse, and (3) creating a healthy and safe community for future generations. If you are interested in contributing to this work, or have ideas about how the group can accomplish its mission, please feel free to contact Margaret Wehrer at wehrerklingamans@gmail.com.

Mass Intentions

A beautiful Catholic tradition is to remember our beloved deceased family and friends with Masses offered for their eternal rest in God's presence. The infinite graces that flow from the Sacrifice of the Mass benefit the souls not only of the deceased but the living as well. The gift of a Mass intention is also a wonderful way to recognize a wedding anniversary, a birthday, an anniversary of ordination or entrance into religious life. For us who believe, no greater gift can be given.

Masses can also be offered for the intentions of a person about to undergo surgery, who is recuperating from an illness, or has some other special need. These Masses are announced simply as "for the intention" of the individual.

All the following Mass Intentions can be arranged by contacting the church office. We especially need Mass intentions for the Tuesday morning daily Mass at St. Joan's.
