As the High School students continue their final preparations for the Sacrament of Confirmation, to be celebrated June 5, please consider adopting a student’s name and become a prayer partner. All you need to do is pray for the student as they continue their faith journey, and strive for the completion of the Sacraments of Initiation. If you would like to send a note of encouragement, addresses are available from Peggy Rhyde and Jessica Tomcho. Names are available this weekend on a table in both St. Mary’s and St. Joan Church Halls. Thank you for keeping the students in your prayers.
