FROM THE DESK OF FATHER HAGE

Thank you so much for your patience with me last weekend as I took the time to offer our parishes a HOPE Appeal feverino. My prayer is that we complete our HOPE Appeal goal by the end of May. Your HOPE Appeal donation helps us serve hundreds of thousands of people throughout our seven county diocese. For example, you help to feed the hungry and clothe the poor, providing over 95,000 meals to the hungry. You help prepare our children for the sacraments, providing support for the catechists who instruct 17,000 students annually. The HOPE Appeal supports more than 4,600 children who attend Catholic Schools in our diocese. You help to bring comfort to the sick and the homebound through Masses for shut-ins and 30,000 visits to the sick by Hospital Chaplains. Further, you help foster and promote vocations to the priesthood. A significant part of your gifts are returned to parishes to support food pantries, youth programs, and senior services. When you think about your HOPE Appeal gift this year, please consider those blessings and gifts you have received in your life and how you can share them with one another. The Hope Appeal helps to deliver the encompassing and fundamental charitable goodness of the Catholic Church to those around us.

Mary Immaculate and Saint Joan of Arc, pray for us!
