FROM THE DESK OF FATHER HAGE

I hope you all had a nice week. We have a number of activities going on this week as well as a couple of more personnel updates for both parishes. First of all, Colgate is celebrating Family Weekend this weekend and will be hosting a family Mass at 9:30 AM on Sunday, Oct. 29. Since Fr. Paul Carey is on vacation, Fr. Paul Madej has graciously agreed to cover the Mass for me the morning of the 29th at St. Joan's, so I can be present for the family Mass at Colgate the same morning. Please give him a warm welcome.

Ryan Endris, the Director of Music Ministry at St. Mary's, has recently requested a leave of absence effective immediately. Please pray for Ryan as he attends to the needs of his mother who is currently battling cancer, and pray for his mother as well. Dr. Jay Swain has graciously agreed to step in for Ryan. I am most grateful to Jay for his willingness to help us out in a moment of need. I would like to invite anyone who has a background in music to consider stepping up as cantors for our weekend Masses. This will be a great help to Dr. Swain as he offers his musical abilities to the parish. I am especially thinking of our high school juniors and seniors (who I know have wonderful voices). Please speak to me personally if you or your teen is interested in cantoring. In regard to the St. Joan's position that is now available, Jessica Tomcho has graciously agreed to take on the position of interim Director of Faith Formation. She will continue as interim director until the end of the academic year, so that she as well as the parish can take the time to evaluate the position. Please thank Jessica for her generosity in taking on the position.

We also celebrate All Saint's and All Souls Days this week. All Saint's Day is a holy day of obligation. The Mass times: are Tuesday, Oct. 31 at 5:30 PM at St. Mary's; Wednesday, Nov. 1, at Colgate's Memorial Chapel at 12:30 PM (All St. Mary's/St. Joan's parishioners are more than welcome to attend this Mass); Wednesday, Nov. 1, at St. Joan's at 6:30 PM. Lastly, there will be a very special Mass offered on Thursday, Nov. 2, at 6:30 PM for All Soul's Day. This Mass will be held at St. Mary's, and is sponsored by the Consolation Team. All persons from St. Mary's and St. Joan's who died in the past year will be remembered at this Mass as well as any other deceased persons you request. Please call the office for more information, especially if you would like your loved one remembered that evening. Mary Immaculate and Saint Joan of Arc, pray for us!

A Family Perspective

In today's gospel the Pharisee was talking about commandments (something we are forced to obey by external pressure) and Jesus was talking about love (an internal exhortation to give our heart, soul and mind to another). One demands allegiance, the other requires personal commitment. In our families we daily lay down our lives for each other not because we "gotta" but because love compels us.

"Dear Sponsors:

I am Braylan, your sponsored child Andrea's uncle. She warmly greets you wishing success in your daily work along with your family. She says that she had a week of school and she had a great time helping her mother with the chores at home. Now they are back in school and she is very excited being in school again. She is learning many nice topics, for example in mathematics she is learning to sum and to subtract. She also learned to write and to read a little bit, she says that she would like to improve her handwriting and become able to write her own letters.

She has a rabbit named Tita and a duck named Maria. She also says that she is very happy for the opportunity that you are giving to her and we are also happy because it has been a great help everything you are doing for us, she pray God for you and your family every single day. May God shower your life with blessings and keep you safe .

She is enjoying good health and so is her family, the weather is variable sometimes it rains and then the sun comes out again and when it rains it also gets windy and cold, but when it is sunny it gets really warm. We are very grateful for your help, she sends kisses and hugs.

Your sponsored child, Andrea Elizabeth Sian Sulugui
